

TIMELINE History of the San Juan Open

1965

Inaugural event. $1,000 purse won by Denver Professional, Bobby Hold.

Lee Trevino was one of 30 professionals entered in the San Juan Open. He finished tied for 5th.

1966

1973

New Mexico PGA Legent, Gene Torres wins his second San Juan Open.

San Juan Country Club's Woody Dame holds off Gene Torres for a sudden death win (-6).

1974

1978

PGA Tour Player, Tom Purtzer's older brother Paul sets a tournament record at 16-under-par. Woody Dame finishes in second place for a third straight year.

PGA Tour Player, Curt Bynum finishes in second place in the Amateur field.

1979

1981

Farmington native, Mark Pelletier wins the San Juan Open (-4).

San Juan Country Club's Terry Tobey wins in playoff (-5).

1984

1985

San Juan Open becomes a 72-hole event

Denver Broncos, star QB, John Elway, plays in the San Juan Open

1989

1990

Farmington amateur, Scott Gates, shoots back-to-back 65's on Saturday and Sunday to win by six shots, one year after breaking his neck in a diving accident.

PGA Tour player, Paul Stankowski, wins shortened 54-hole event. PGA Tour player, Notah Begay III wins the amateur division.

1992

1997

Brian Kortan wins first of four San Juan Opens.

San Juan Country Club's Gary Blevins wins San Juan Open (-11)

1999

2001

Brian Kortan wins second San Juan Open with tournament record 20-under-par.

Brian Kortan wins third San Juan Open and second consecutive.

2002

2003

Brian Kortan wins third consecutive San Juan Open and fourth championship at 18-under-par.

Current PGA Tour player, Gary Christian, sets San Juan Open tournament record at 22-under-par.

2004

2005

Ryan Hogue wins his first San Juan Open (-13) in a playoff with a 70-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole to beat defending champion Gary Christian Current PGA Tour player, Martin Laird, wins San Juan Open at 15-under-par. This is the first year the course is played under its current layout of par 71.

2006

2007

Ryan Hogue wins his second San Juan Open at 16-under-par.

Four time San Juan Open champion, Brian Kortan, comes back from a heart attack to play the 2008 US Open at Torrey Pines and then the San Juan Open in consecutive weeks. Jeremy Lederer wins the San Juan Open at 15-under-par.

2008

2009

Highest purse in San Juan Open history. Derek Tolan sets new tournament record at 24-under-par.

2010

Clay Odgen's 61 on Sunday sets up a 5-shot win at 22-under-par.

2011

Ryan Dillon wins the San Juan Open at 11-under-par on Joe Schmidt's "Superintendent's Revenge" golf course. Created after the last two tournaments generated record setting wins.

Gabe Maier erases a six-shot deficit to win the 2012 San Juan Open.

2012

2013

Jimmy Gunn takes the win with a 16-under-par total.

Kevin Velo wins the 2022 San Juan Open with a record setting 25-under-par.

2022

2023

Josh Anderson wins the San Juan Open by one shot over Jesse Mueller after shooting a 63 on Sunday.